In connection with the New York Central, New York and Erie, Buffalo and New York City, and Elmira and Niagara Falls Railroads, to

New York, Boston, and all Eastern Roads from Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

FOUR DAILY TRAINS LEAVE CHICAGO.

1. Cincinnati Express, at 5 A. M., via New [illegible] and Salem Railroad, through in 15 hours.
2. Express, at 5.45 A. M., connecting at Detroit with the Canada Railways, arriving at Niagara Falls and Buffalo next morning, in time for the Early Train East.
3. Steamboat Express, at 12.30 P. M., connecting at Detroit with the North Shore Steamers, arriving in Buffalo next afternoon in time for the 5 P. M. Train, arriving in New York next morning. Connecting also with Steamers for Cleveland and the different lines of Railroads from there next morning to Pittsburg, Philadelphia, &c.
4. Express, at 7.15 P. M., connecting with Canada Railways, arriving at Niagara Falls and Buffalo next afternoon, and New York next morning. Connecting also with steamers for Sandusky

WESTERN WORLD, C. C. STANARD, Master,
Leaves Detroit Tuesdays and Fridays
PLYMOUTH ROCK, G. E. WILLOUGHBY, Master,
Leaves Detroit Wednesdays and Thursdays
MAYFLOWER, T. T. HUDSON, Master,
Leaves Detroit Fridays and Saturdays.

On the arrival of the Chicago Express at 10.15 P. M., going DIRECT THROUGH without landing, via North Shore, arriving in Buffalo in time for the 5 P. M. Train, and N. York the next morning at 9.15.

The two new steamers were built this season at an expense of over half a million of dollars, and have no equal in the world, in every respect. Their capacity excels any steamers afloat, having 100 State Rooms, with double beds, and can accommodate 830 persons with berths.

Passengers purchasing through Tickets by Railroad all the way, can change them at Detroit and go by steamer; so also those purchasing tickets by steamer, can exchange and go by Railroad.

Baggage checked through from Chicago to Albany and New York, and no extra charge for handling, and no exchange of checks as by the Lake Shore Road via Erie and Harbor Creek.

☞ Tickets good for 90 days, allowing passengers to stop over on the route.

Two Boats a Day from Milwaukee.

Two of Capt. Clement's splendid Low Pressure Steamers leave Milwaukee daily, in connection with the above route, on the arrival of the cars from Madison and Janesville.

The Morning Boat leaves at 9 A. M., and the Evening Boat at 8.30 P. M.

☞ Be particular and purchase Through Tickets by the GREAT CENTRAL ROUTE, of the different Agents North and West.

GREAT BROAD GUAGE RAILROAD ROUTE!

FROM BUFFALO TO NEW YORK CITY, DIRECT.

By Buffalo & New York City Railroad to Hornellsville, 91 miles, and New York & Erie Railroad to New York, 331 miles—in all, 422 miles.

☞ This is as cheap, as quick, shorter, safer, less fatiguing, and much more interesting and delightful, than any other route between the two points. And it is believed that the traveler of the South and Southwest is only to be made acquainted with it, and its connections with the various lines of steamboats and railroads, from the West, centering in Buffalo, to secure for it his favor and patronage. Besides, a view of the Portage Bridge, the wonder and admiration of all who have seen it, the traveler over this route is presented with scenes, constantly changing, the most beautiful and sublime, lovely and picturesque in the State of New York. The well cultivated farm, the dense forest, the gently flowing river, the rushing cataract, the broad and fertile valley, the huge and lofty mountain, the quiet hamlet, and the busy, bustling, city-like village meet the eye in rapid succession, to interest, gratify and render the trip both pleasing and delightful.

☞ FARE AS LOW AS BY ANY OTHER ROUTE. ☜

FOUR TRAINS LEAVE BUFFALO DAILY,

F. BROWN'S

ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER.

THIS ESSENCE is a preparation of unusual excellence. In ordinary diarrhoea, incipient cholera, in short, in all cases of prostration of the digestive functions, it is of inestimable value. During the prevalence of epidemic cholera and summer complaints of children, it is peculiarly efficacious; no family, individual or traveler should be without it, as it enables the system to resist the influence of incipient diseases which lurk in a changing climate.

CAUTION.—Be sure to get the genuine essence, which is prepared only by F. BROWN, at his Drug and Chemical Store, N. E. Corner of Fifth and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, and in Milwaukee by H. Bosworth & Sons, Lake & Williams; in Madison by John Wright; Racine by F. W. DeBerrard; Kenosha by F. Robinson; Sheboygan by Long & Davis. [illegible]

The Priest and the Mulberry Tree.

Did you hear of the curate who mounted his mare,
And merrily trotted along to the fair?
Of creature more tractable none ever heard;
In the height of her speed she would stop at a word,
And again with a word, when the curate said "hey,"
She would put forth her mettle and gallop away.

As near to the gates of a city he rode,
While the sun of September all brilliantly glowed,
The good priest discovered, with eyes of desire,
A mulberry tree in a hedge of wild brier;
On boughs long and lofty, in many a green shoot,
Large, glossy and black, hung the beautiful fruit.

The curate was hungry and thirsty to boot;
He shrunk from the thorns, though he longed for the fruit;
With a word he arrested his courser's keen speed,
Then stood up erect on the back of his steed;
On the saddle he stood, while the creature kept still,
And he gathered the fruit till he took his fill.

"Sure, never," he said, "was a creature so rare!
How docile, how true, is this excellent mare!
See, here now I stand," and he gazed all around,
"As safe and as steady as if on the ground;
Yet how had it been, if some traveller this way
Had, dreaming no mischief, but chanced to say 'Hey!'"

He stood with his head in the mulberry tree,
And he spoke out aloud in the height of his glee;
At the sound of the word the mare made a push,
And down went the priest in the wild brier-bush;
He remembered too late, on his thorny green bed,
"Much that well may be thought cannot wisely be said."

How it is Received Abroad.

The effort to overthrow the Sovereignty of the States and destroy the authority of the State Judiciary to protect its own citizens against the usurpations of the Federal Government, alias the Slave Power, is awakening a response from the press of the other States. The Detroit Tribune says:

"The Blood Hounds of Slavery are still on the track of S. M. Booth, Esq., the fearless editor of the Milwaukee Free Democrat. They have pursued him with a bitter ferocity that has no parallel, and the minions of the U. S. Government are used as tools for carrying on this persecution. He is again in the toils of the law. The following from his paper of Tuesday explains itself:

[We omit the extract from our own paper.—Ed. Free Dem.]

"Mr. Booth is accused of assisting in the rescue of the slave Glover. Now compare his offense with the crime of the Kansas ruffians, and mark the difference in the action of the Executive."

A correspondent of the Chicago Tribune writes from Waukegan thus:

"Messrs. Editors: I observed in the Milwaukee Free Democrat, of the 8th inst., a remarkable document from the highest Judicial functionary in the United States, to which I desire to call public attention.

"It is humiliating to witness the prostitution of the present Administration in its unprecedented efforts to render authoritive the 'Fugitive Slave Act' of 1850: but I was not prepared to see the 'Chief Justice of the United States' entering upon a proceeding that, if persisted in, strikes down not only personal but State rights, and usurps a power hardly equalled in any European despotism, and which would jeopard the tranquility and permanence of the Federal Union.

"It is a citation and admonition from Chief Justice Roger B. Taney, to Sherman M. Booth, editor and proprietor of the Free Democrat, in Milwaukee, to appear on the first Monday of December in the city of Washington, pursuant to a Writ of Error filed in the Clerk's Office of the Supreme Court of the State of Wisconsin.

The Fugitive Slave Act is an atrocious disregard of individual rights and constitutional guarantees. It strikes a fatal blow at our bill of rights and abjures the Habeas Corpus Act which is placed so prominently in the sacred instrument of our National compact; that it is beyond the power of repeal without an utter destruction of all further obligations to the Union. The most eminent jurists of our country have pronounced the act unconstitutional and void. Their arguments have never been refuted. The people throughout the Northern States, with but a few exceptions, have confirmed this opinion at the ballot-box in our several Congressional and Senatorial elections. The safety of human liberty depends upon, whether or no the people will abide by their own decision. For one, I say, stand firm—yield not a hair's breadth.

The Government, having been thus signally rebuked, may seek to accomplish through our Federal Courts, the Nationalization of Slavery. They are not content that it should remain with its responsibility where it is, but they seek to force it upon the North—to force Northern men to take up the whip and the chains, and become overseers and public watchmen of Southern slaves. In the person of Judge Miller of Wisconsin, Government has a faithful servant to do its bidding. In the trial of recent cases, he transcended his official powers and the obligations of his oath by attempting to coerce the jury to bring in a verdict of guilty. His duplicity was only equaled by other government officials who were engaged with him in this outrage.

"The high and noble Constitutional grounds taken and vindicated by the Supreme Court of Wisconsin, took the victims of this act, out of the devouring jaws of slavery, and placed them where their God, their citizenship, and their humanity would have them, in the full and unrestrained possession of their rights and liberties. Chief Justice Taney says: they shall not enjoy them, and cites and admonishes Sherman M. Booth to appear at Washington, to show cause why judgement rendered in his favor should not be corrected, and why speedy justice should not be done."

"The question for the people to meet and determine, is not whether Slavery shall be exterminated in the States where it exists, but whether the Free People of the North shall be reduced to slavery. Neither is it the invasion of Mr. Booth's personal liberty alone, that shall cause the People and the Press to speak out against such assumption in decided and strong terms, but it is the invasion of the rights of a whole nation, from the strongest and most influential, to the weakest and most obscure.—Whenever and wherever an attempt is made to make liberty sectional and slavery national, there and then should warning and rebukes be heard, and if need be, efforts made so promptly as to put an effectual stop to further trespasses. This effort of the general government is to make the States in their sovereign capacity, amenable to the United States Government—to make the independent Judiciary of a State dependent in the exercise of its powers, within and upon the reserved rights of the State, upon the Judiciary of the United States. This destroys the only sovereignty that is in the American nation, and centralizes the supreme power of each State in that of the Federal Government. It is this that I protest against and call upon my fellow citizens to vindicate themselves from all such aggressions.

C. M. HAWLEY.

Waukegan, May 11th, 1855.

The Cleveland Leader, of the 14th inst., says:

"For months BOOTH has been oppressed by orders from the National Capitol, and the U. S. Judge Miller, and his Officials, have sought to worry him, and break him down. He triumphed over all. But again we learn from the Free Democrat of the 8th, that he is still in the toils of the law.

"Just ask—what is the charge against S. M. BOOTH? That of helping an escaped slave to escape into freedom. For this he is hunted down by the whole power of the Federal Government. Yet that Government will permit Kansas to be seized by ruffians, the elective franchise trodden under foot, free speech crushed out, and freemen over-awed by the bowie-knives and bludgeons of these ruffians, and not lift a voice to warn, or an arm to protect the liberties of the People."

MILWAUKEE:

FRIDAY:::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::MAY 18

The Lake Shore Railroad

Is to be opened to-morrow, and the Common Council, Mayor and others, go down to Kenosha in the morning, to see the last rail laid which unites Milwaukee, by iron links, to the South and the East. It is the inauguration of a better era for our city and State.

Free Speech Unknown in the Slave States.

The New York Tribune recently exposed the cruelties of slaveholders in Paris, Kentucky, and in Baltimore, Md. The facts in the Paris case had been proved in Court, and yet the Tribune charged that the papers of Kentucky and Md. said nothing about them. Now hear the defense which the Louisville Journal and the Baltimore Sun make, in reply to the Tribune.

The Louisville Journal says the reason the Kentucky press never denounced the barbarity of Mrs. Alpheus Lewis, of Paris, Bourbon Co., who burned and otherwise tortured her slaves, was because "they had never heard of or seen any account of the case until they read it in the Tribune."

In the same way the Baltimore Sun responds to the exposure of the equal outrages committed on their defenseless slaves by well-known residents of that city, that it "never heard a syllable about it until they read the story in the Tribune."

To which the Tribune responds:

"We have no doubt these assertions of ignorance are perfectly true. The fact is that in almost all cases cruelty to slaves has only slaves for witnesses, and when they complain no one will listen. The individual citizen who should pay attention to such complaints must at once fall under the suspicion of the community; he is denounced as an Abolitionist and a meddler; if a Southerner, he loses caste and becomes a reproach in the estimation of all respectable slaveholders; if a Northerner, he gets a coat of tar and feathers and a notice to leave the State. For instance, even our correspondent who reported the account of the enormities in Bourbon County would no doubt be lynched or driven from Kentucky if he were known; and yet he simply narrated facts which had been proved before a public court and were otherwise notorious. Quite as unsafe is it for a newspaper in a Slave State to report cases to the world. We all remember what happened to the True American in that same State of Kentucky, and the fate of the Parkville Luminary is fresh before our eyes. A journalist who should make it his business to find out and publish the facts of slavery would not be tolerated at Louisville or Baltimore for a week. A paper telling the whole truth about the institution is as impossible in a Slave State as one at Paris who should tell the whole truth about Louis Bonaparte."

CAN'T HELP FEELING DISTRESSED ABOUT IT.—The Madison Patriot, in referring again to the Glover Rescue case, asks us:

"By the way, the people helped bear the expense of that little joke of yours, didn't they?"

Certainly, they did. And when any of those who contributed for that purpose complain, it will be time for you to make a note of it. Till then, your jeers about it, are as insulting to the contributors, as they are ungentlemanly toward us.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRAT, at LaCrosse, after a suspension of 12 weeks for want of breath, has revived again, and its Editor, F. A. Moore, spreads his views over a column, in a free and easy style. He is disgusted with the Know-Nothings, "can't dance with the Republicans," and "shall continue to avoid the Nebraska test," but will, as heretofore, support Nebraska and pro-slavery candidates. It pledges itself to LaCrosse interests, asks for a generous patronage, which, it says, its own party friends have failed to give it, and promises to live, "whether or no."

THE Madison Patriot says:

"The following is a good refutation of the Free Democrat's charge of Southern Aggresion. All that is needed is for the North to quietly avow its principles without insulting the South:

The Northern Allies of Slavery.—We have more than once expressed the opinion that indignation against the South, for the encroachments of slavery is mis-spent. The South pursues its aggressive policy no farther than it is led by Northern venal doughfaces.—Salem Register."

There is one truth and one falsehood in the above articles. It is false that the South have made no aggressions upon Freedom, as witness the large increase of slave territory and of slave States, since the adoption of the U. S. Constitution, and the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. But it is true that the South have always enough "Northern venal doughfaces" to put forward in support of the claims of the slavery propaganda and enough servile presses like the Patriot, to back them. Judging from its past course, Slavery might spread over all our territories and be established in the Free States, without a word of earnest remonstrance from the Patriot. A paper that defends the constitutionality of the Fugitive Slave Act, may be relied on for any service the Slave Power assign it.

A STRIKING CONTRAST.—C. D. Booth Esq., local editor of the Free Democrat, has possessed himself of a "white Beaver hat", which he says is "beautiful and easy to wear." We have often noticed, that gentlemen of color prefer white hats. Doubtless the young wenches will doff their bonnets when they meet their advocate promenading the streets carrying a white topnot. Should they omit to "do the civilities," it is probable that the editor will "read them a lecture" in his next issue.—Ozaukee Co Adv.

We suggest to our civil cotemporary that a white skin sometimes covers a black heart, and that he is an exemplification of the truth of Scripture that "out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, false witness, &c."

A TOKEN OF APPRECIATION.—In return for the splendid tiara, value about 2,000,000 reals, recently presented to the Pope by the Queen of Spain, His Holiness has sent Her Majesty the body of St. Felix, the martyr.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To FRANKLIN PURSE, Esq.,

We all ov us out heer in illynoy aprove ov our frends distrawin that "parxcil loomirery," bekaws it advokatid fre-sile noshuns. We must kepe down the northern aid men thare, ☞at all hazzards. we all feal grate konfidense in tellin them that oposed "Litrel dug's" Nebraska Bil, that thare aint no danjur ov slavry goin thare. But, Frank, wun thing must be dun, and that is, ☞Redur must be put out or the w , fur he is a leetil tincktured with fre-sileism, and seems inklined tu let the pepel make it fre territora, ef tha hav a mind tu. and yu no our fokes out thare want him out of the way, and ef yu don't du it tha will—mark that. and i kan tel yu hoo is the best man in all kreashun tu put thare, tu karry out our vews and meshures, and that man (thing?) is juj Miller of Milwockey in Westkonsin. only jest see how nobly he dun his dooty, in Booth's triels. he dun all that kood be dun tu help on our "pekewlyer instytushun," and has renderd his naim imortle, and it will go down tu posterrety enroald on the pajis ov our nashun's historee, with sich pat-riots as Bennydik Arnul and judus iskarryot. i tel yu, Frank, he is the man tu put in Redur's plase—he'll du up things tu our likin.

Yu must incurrij Garland tu sew Booth agin, and hev it before juj Miller, bekaws he ain't prejudist agin Booth enny, yu no. ef he had bin he woodent giv him sich a fare trile, and it apeers Bruther Garland is rather poor, (yu no he borrerd 40 dolers last yeer, whitch he forgot tu pa) so i think yu had better let him hev munny out ov the yewnited staits treshery tu pa his ekspensis.

And it seams as ef our trubbles woodent never hav an eend, as tha hev let that skoundril Parker, of Bosting, go fre. ef sich fellers as he and Booth kan steel our niggurs as tha hav, and not be maid to suffer, then we mite as well give up our "pekewlyer instytushun." I raly seams as ef the fre-silers and aberlishenas air gittin moar sassy and imperdent evry da.

And then thare is the kase ov our pius, godley, Revrund, niggur-steelin bruther Dennison, hoo koodent git his sweet Rosetta at Sinsynatty, when he had her rite afore our own komi hener, and he woodent giv her up when our Revrund niggur-steeling frend pruved that she was his niggur, and had no more morrul rite tu her fredum, than yu or i hev. the last thing I seed in the papurs abowt bruther Dennison, was that tha was goin tu sew him for the kosts of the kort, whitch was abowt too thousen dolers.—Now ef tha shood git jujmint agin him for that, yu must tel him tu apeel tu the Soopreem Kort of the yewnited staits, and ef he gits beat thair, yu must let him hev the munny tu pa it out of the yewaited staits treshery. we must du sumthin tu incurrij um tu try tu git hair run-awa niggurs, or tha'll git sick ov it an l giv up the biznes.

And it seams that the pepel in Mishygan and Nu-York, and Massychewsits, hev past lawse forbiddin our suthern bruthrin from usin enny ov thare jales, or publik bildins, tu put thare run-awa niggurs in, and prohibitin enny of thare fokes (ofesurs and all) from helpin us. Oh, Frank, aint "our sufferins intolerabul."

N. B.—Don't yu rather think that we hev over-dun the biznes, and shall by-and-by "bust the biler." Yours in deep affeshun,

P. S.—What wil bruther Dug du, ef we pass the Mane Law?

CHANGES.—John Walworth, for three years the successful publisher of the Monroe Sentinel, has sold out his interest in that paper to Messrs. N. L. Stout and G. W. Tenney, its present publishers, who leased it of him, some time last fall. Mr. Walworth writes a vigorous valedictory on retiring, reviewing the treacherous administration of President Pierce, the triumphs of the Republican cause in this State and predicting a glorious success in the fall campaign, and intimating that he may be heard from again in the editorial field.

Messrs. Stout and Tenney have done able service in the cause of Freedom, have made an able paper, and are eminently deserving of the patronage of the citizens of Green County.

FORT ATKINSON.—There is considerable building going on in this enterprising village, this season. A dozen buildings have already been erected this spring, and twice that number are to be built. The people are also engaged to build an Academy this summer, worth $2,000. A live Yankee, from New-Hampshire, has also contracted to build a grist-mill, worth $8,000, to have the frame enclosed by next December, and completed by next March.—There is no flouring mill within six miles of Ft. Atkinson, and the citizens have given $1000 bonus for the erection of this mill. Their enterprise and public spirit will be rewarded tenfold.

JOS. HISS ARRESTED FOR DEBT.—Joseph Hiss, of Mrs. Patterson notoriety, was arrested for debt at Boston, on the 16th inst., while on his way to the State House. His counsel procured a writ of habeas corpus, on the ground that Hiss was a member of the House and privileged from arrest, and on the 17th he was brought before Judge Shaw, and the writ on motion of plaintiff, was dismissed.

FIRE.—A building used for the U. States recruiting station, with a lot of uniforms and equipments, was destroyed by fire at Chicago, yesterday morning. Loss $8,000.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—On the afternoon of the 15th inst., 16 buildings, and property to the amount of $100,000, were destroyed by fire at Evansville, Ind.—mostly insured.

THE K N.'s of the Louisville, (Ky.) District have nominated Humphrey Marshall for Congress.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

IRONTHORPE, The Pioneer Preacher; by PAUL CREYTON, author of "Father Brighthopes," "Martin Merrivale," &c. Phillips, Sampson & Co., Boston.

A choice little book, depicting the incidents of moral life in a most charming manner.—Rebecca is the heroine of the story, and Paul does justice to his previous reputation in this book.

SURGICAL REPORTS, and Miscellaneous Papers on Medical Subjects: by GEO. HAYWARD, M.D. Phillips, Sampson & Co., Boston, 450 pp.

This is a neatly bound volume, of great interest to the general, as well as the medical and scientific reader. It treats at length of some of the most prevalent and fatal diseases, and shows from the statistics of consumption for the last thirty years, in the cities of Boston, New-York and Philadelphia, that this disease is decreasing. The paper on the cholera is very able; indeed, this is true of the whole work.

For sale by A. WHITTEMORE & Co.

We are also indebted to Messrs. Whittemore & Co. for the discourse, in pamphlet form, of President Wayland, of Brown University, delivered at Union College, on the fiftieth anniversary of Rev. Dr. Nott's Presidency of that Institution. It is the voice of an old man rendered young by the presence of an older patriarch. Published by Phillips, Sampson & Co.

The American Phrenological Journal, for May, is received. It is an unusually interesting No., and has a large space devoted to house-building with gravel walls. The great desideratum in house building is cheapness, durability and comfort. And houses of this material, it is contended, are far cheaper, more durable, and warmer in winter and cooler in summer, than those built of wood, brick or stone.

The Water Cure Journal, for May, is full of interesting articles devoted to the doctrines it advocates. Both these journals are published by Fowlers & Wells, New-York, at $1 a year each.

At Belleville, Ill., on Friday morning, a hog entered the basement of a house occupied by Mr. Buckner, and in the absence of the mother, seized the arm of an infant about six months old, lying in a cradle. The cries of the little sufferer attracted the attention of some men who were passing the house, when they entered and drove the animal off, just in time to save the little innocent from being devoured alive. The flesh was torn from the arm, but the wound was not dangerous.

Archbishop Hughes has crossed and recrossed the Atlantic, with very little trouble, yet, strange as it may seem, there are Brooks in America that he can't get over.

IN 1847, the "Life of John Elliot," by Nehemiah Adams, was published by the Massachusetts Sunday School Society. That volume contains a remonstrance and petition presented to the Governor and Council at Boston, 1675, by Elliot, against the selling the Indians for slaves, which Dr. Adams says is exceedingly interesting. "To sell souls for money,' says Eliot, seemeth to me a dangerous merchandise. If they deserve to die, it is far better to be put to death under godly rulers, who will take care that means may be used that they may die penitently. Thou shalt not deliver unto his master the servant which is escaped. How much less lawful is it to sell away souls from under the light of the gospel into a condition where their souls will be utterly lost!"—Pp. 354, 314. The same Dr. Adams, in 1854, defends the return of fugitives into slavery!

MEXICAN INTELLIGENCE.—Mexican news to the 8th inst has been received.

Santa Anna, had left the capital for Michoacan. A report obtained circulation in the City of Mexico, that a body of troops in Sonora had revolted and a Pronunciamento had been issued against Santa Anna.

The Government had ordered the suspension of all payments except those under treaties, respecting the foreign debt.

Sickness continued to prevail in the City of Mexico, particularly the small pox.

Lieut. Don Jose Maria Perez had been pardoned by Santa Anna. He had been sentenced to six years imprisonment in the fortress and to be dismissed from the service, for fighting a duel with the Spanish Consul at Tampico.

The Mexican Universal (newspaper) states that letters from Durango, give account of great outrages committed by the Indians. The place was attacked by a band of 1000 savages, and all the houses of the town ransacked. The military commandant and Postmaster were shot. Some of the principal inhabitants were beheaded, and many women violated and carried off.

LAPOINTE HEARD FROM.—The returns of the recent Judicial election in Lapointe Co. have been received, as follows:

For Samuel Crawford..................................5
" James H. Knowlton..................................16

These are supposed to be the votes at the election in April last; but as James H. Knowlton was a candidate against Crawford two years ago last September, it has been suggested that these are the returns for that election.—Madison Argus.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—Transactions in real estate continue as active as usual. Most of the buyers are citizens who come here to reside, and want a home of their own. The following are the sales made by Mr. A. L. Pritchard, last week:

To Enos Salsich, Lot 3, Block 2, Pritchard's Second Addition, for $250.

To Mr. Gibbs, Lots 6 and 9, Block 1, Pritchard's Second Addition, for $600.

To the same, Lot 10 and 11, Block 20, Pritchard's Second Addition, for $800.—Watertown Democrat.

HEAVY ROBBERY AT CARROLTON.—The safe of the County Clerk, Mr. F. P. Pedder, at Carrolton, Illinois, was blown open with gunpowder on the night of the 13th inst., and $3,025, in money, as well as a considerable amount of county orders, taken therefrom.

LAND ENTRIES.—Entries at the Land Office in LaCrosse, this Spring, are unprecedented.—Cash entries for the month of April amount to over $50,000. The first week in May amounts to $18,000. Entries last year, for the corresponding month of April were less than $20,000. Entries in January last $18,500. In February $8,000. In March $17,000.

The $70,000 for April, and first week in May, show about 700 entries, or 100 acres as an average location. We learn from the officers, that locations this spring are made almost entirely by new settlers. Very few pine lands, or others, have gone in to the hands of speculators. Hundreds of men that have passed through our village, are ranging north and east in this district, in search of good spots for locations.—LaCrosse National Dem.

ONLY WAITING.—'It is said' that 100 buildings are waiting to be put up in our village only for want of lumber. The lumber will be forthcoming, and then sufficient hands to work it.—One hundred buildings will do something towards dotting the north of our beautiful prairie, and put to good use some of the "magnificent vacant lots."—LaCrosse National Dem.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

NEW YORK, May 16th.—The U. S. Mail steamer Cahawba arrived here this evening.—She brings New Orleans dates to the 9th, and Havana to the 12th, two days later than those brought by the Grenada. We have nothing of much importance from Havana.

The steamers Princeton and Jamestown were cruising off the coast.

Commodore McAuley was at Key West.

A rumor prevailed at Havana that Gen. Concha would pardon M. Felix.

The organizing, arming, and drilling of the colored people of Cuba still continues. The Yucatan Indians continue to be introduced into Cuba under the consent of the authorities of Mexico. Nearly 200 of them were landed at Havana on the 11th, from a Spanish vessel, and sold under contract made previous to their arrival. Havana continues healthy, and business active. A report was circulated in Havana on the 11th that the prisoners who were confined on board the prison-ship had escaped.

The Railroad Convention met at the Astor House to-day but adjourned in consequence of the small attendance, subject to the call.

NEW YORK, May 17th.—The mate of the schr. Bay City, writes from Rio Janero, that the reason of her being fired into by the British Brig of War Bonita, was that Captain Wardle of the Bay City, refused to show his colors.

PITTSBURGH, May 16th.—The Pennsylvania bridge over the Juniata, at Binghampton has been repaired, and trains are passing over it as usual.

River four feet nine inches and falling.

NEW YORK, May 14th.—Gen. Anthony Lamb, an old and highly esteemed citizen, died here last night, aged 84 years. At the time of his death he was President of the New York State Society of Cincinnati.

NEW YORK, May 17.—The Touro Hospital was dedicated to-day.

BOSTON, May 18.—The Personal Liberty Bill was passed to day by 229 to 43, with an amendment forbidding any state officer from being U. S. Commissioner.

CHICAGO, May 17.—The St. Louis Democrat has a letter from Mr. Park, of the Luminary, which makes some startling developments. He says that Atchison, Springfellow, Thompson, and others, have formed a secret association to turn out to fight when called on by the leaders to contribute to pay damages, and for warlike purposes—to do this even at the price of disunion—and to destroy the business of any one marked out.

Western Missouri is held in constant terror—all Benton and Whig papers are to be destroyed, the Kansas Hotel and press at Lawrence also. Cannon are to be taken to demolish them from a distance, so as to avoid being blown up. He promises further developments.

NEW YORK, May 17.—The new steamship Arago, of the Havre line, went to sea yesterday, on an engineer's trial trip. She takes the place of the Humboldt and starts June 2d.

The Roman Church Controversy.—Hon. Erastus Brooks, this A. M. published a lengthy reply to the manifesto of Archbishop Hughes, but without introducing anything new, of importance. He confines his efforts to an analysis of the alleged contradictory statements of his antagonist during the progress of the controversy.

ON ITS WAY.—The iron for the Milwaukee & Watertown R. R. to complete it to this city has been shipped from England and will arrive in New York by the 1st of June. It is the opinion of the President of the company, that it will be on the ground, ready for the track, by the 1st of July next.—Watertown Dem.

The venerable Rev. J. P. Francis, vicar of the parish of Holy Cross, Westgate, England, recently committed suicide by shooting himself in his study. The reverend gentleman had been in a desponding way for some time past, and was unable to attend to his clerical duties. He was a brother-in-law of the late Bishop Braughton, and was 76 years old.

An old woman, writes a correspondent from Leedsville, N. Y., not many miles from here, went to the store to purchase some crockery. There was none, however, that quite suited her. There was one set that would be just the thing, only they were so light colored they'd show dirt. The merchant replaced his earthern ware, despairing of suiting so fastidious a customer.

RAIL ROAD.—We made a short excursion as far east as Juda—8 miles—of Monday afternoon, and found Mr. Dodge, the engineer, making his way toward this place, where he expects to be on Thursday or Friday, at farthest. He is now running a correction line, after which he will put on the level and make out the estimates. Everything seems to be doing which can be done to forward the interests of the line.—Monroe Sent. 16th inst.

Weather is very warm, ground dry and dusty. Need rain very much,—there is some danger of injury to crops in consequence of drouth.—Monroe Sent. 16th inst.

FROST.—Damage to Fruit.—The heavy frosts of last week severely damaged what fruit trees were in bloom, in this vicinity.—Shullsburgh Patriot and Flag 15th inst.

TRAVEL.—The public conveyances coming to and going from this city are filled with passengers. Some days three or four stages come in from Oconomowoc, crowded as thickly with travelers as the sunny side of a hive with bees in spring time.—Watertown Dem. 17th.

FINES OF THE UNLICENSED.—The fines imposed in the city Police Court for selling liquor without a license since the first of the present month, amounted to four hundred and twenty dollars, of which two hundred and forty was imposed yesterday morning upon eight offenders.—Chicago Press 17th.

Since the opening of navigation there have been over 5,060 bbls. flour, 3,000 bu. Wheat, and 3,000 bu. potatoes landed at this place.—Menasha Adv.

OUR LIGHT HOUSE.—The Menasha Light-House is being pushed rapidly towards completion. The "Light" will shine upon us about the first of July.—Menasha Adv.

EMIGRATION.—Over two hundred families have settled in Menasha this Spring. They have all bought lots, and most of them have erected dwellings. There is plenty of room for two thousand more, as lots can be purchased reasonably.—Menasha Adv.

THE LARGEST HENS EGG YET.—Mr. David Edwards, of Westford, has left at this office the largest hen's egg we ever saw. It measures 7 9-16 inches around it one way, and 6 5-16 around the other way, and weighs 3¼ ounces.—Beaver Dam Rep.

MERCHANDIZE.—An immense amount of merchandize is now going into the interior. The wagons from Oconomowoc are loaded with all sorts of boxes bails and bags, filled with new goods for dealers in the surrounding villages.—Watertown Dem. 17th.

SWEET.—The Detroit Tribune is responsible for the following: BAYARD TAYLOR lately deliverd a lecture at Kalamazoo on the Philosophy of travel before a large audience. The next day, a gentleman chancing to meet a lady, who listened the lecture, asked her opinion of it. Oh say she "it was excellent—he has such a sweet mustashe!" Discriminating female.

[illegible] Editor

FRIDAY .... MAY 18.

The Local Editor of the Buffalo Express Expelled from the Know-Nothings.

[illegible] C. Chester, the talented and accom[plished] Local Editor of the Buffalo Express, [has re]cently been expelled from the Know-[Nothing] Lodge in Buffalo. We publish the [Express' v]ersion of the matter, by Mr. Ches[ter] [illegible] the tyranny of Know-Nothingism. [illegible] the pleasure of a personal acquaint[ance] [wi]th Mr. Chester, but no one could read [illegible] of them so pathetic and [illegible] for three or four years, as we have [illegible] to be other than an hon[est] [ma]n. We know such thoughts as he [gives] to the world — expressed in such [illegible] language—could never have [come from] a base heart:

[illegible] communication signed 'Sam,' on [this] page, it will be seen that we have [been exp]elled from the Order of Know-[Nothings in] this city. If those who were in[strumental in] bringing this result to pass, are [satisfied, so] are we. We entered the Order in [illegible] ourselves unable to sympa[thize] [illegible] requested, in a cour[teous] manner, that a card of dismis[sal] [illegible] and this is our answer. [illegible] it will be admitted, [illegible] compliment. [illegible] that at the time when we so[licited] [illegible] it seems we are not des[tined] [illegible] matter which we keenly [illegible] that it might be useful, if [illegible] we did not keep the company [illegible] to be found among the 'six [illegible] in the affirmative—no charg[es] [pre]ferred against us. It was our right, [illegible] such card—a right guar[anteed] [illegible] a right established [illegible]. Why was the matter suffered [illegible] and become subject to delay [illegible] it not look as if certain [illegible] time to inquire for some [illegible]. How comes it that the ritual [illegible] to meet our case, without [illegible] part, or the smallest [illegible] change? These things [illegible] look, and resolve themselves [illegible] compliment to the honor [illegible] Council.

[illegible] our name was to go before the [illegible] that needed explanation, [illegible] that has produced our ex[pulsion] [illegible] request had been granted, the [illegible] would never have appeared: if the [illegible] the Order had not first broken [illegible] should have been kept invi[olate] [illegible] contravened the letter and spirit [illegible] in refusing what we asked [illegible] themselves in that refusal— [illegible] were put upon record by a [illegible] and were given to the [illegible]. Could we do less than defend [illegible] done but this. Do they [illegible] have intercepted 'Sam's' [illegible] saved the necessity of our [illegible]. Ah! but we have your word for saying [illegible] control over what appears up[on] [illegible] and thus you are rebuked [illegible] own mouth. However, we are per[illegible] with your verdict. Our object [illegible] starting—to get out; the [illegible] consequence. Suffer [illegible] an affectionate farewell, now that [illegible] assure you that your kind[ness] [illegible] be remembered with [illegible] gratitude. Farewell! [illegible] write it—but Farewell!

[illegible] are politely invited to an [illegible] campaign concomitants, [illegible] evening they may select, [illegible] willing to foot the bill them[selves].

[NEW] CONCERT HALL.—Messrs. [illegible] have leased Concert Hall [illegible] and West Water streets— [illegible] of months, and are fitting it up [for a] Theatre. Mr. Lyne is now [illegible] purpose of engaging seven actors [illegible] few days. It is expected [illegible] will be ready for opening a [illegible] Monday.

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is reported that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL AND CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause. There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand and thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchitis, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases that fasten on the body, to work its decay.—But for diseases we should only die of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only while it is weak but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Disease, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains Billious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as pimples on the Face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, Loss of Appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the Head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

Try them once, and you will never be without them.

Price 25 cts. per Box—5 Boxes for $1,00

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold by all respectable druggists every where.
